

New Blood Donors Needed By Ralph

Remember Ralph Rytting? He is from Salt Lake City, and a hemophiliac—a "bleeder."

Just semester 119 students of contributed blood so Ralph's of over 500 pints could be shed.

His debt was lowered but not eliminated, there now is still a of over 400 pints that has to be repaid.

Ralph is a regular patient at Hospital in Salt Lake. Because of his regular visits for check-ups and treatments the hospital has a room for him equipped with some stereo equipment so he can continue his work there.

ROUGH GO
Ralph suffers most from internal bleeding caused from his. Extreme pain comes in the loose blood flows into joints.

Good doctors and hospitals money. The Rytting family lists of Georgia, his wife, and children, Elizabeth 14 and Colby 16. Both Ralph and his wife work but the cost of blood is a little difficult to cover.

The Student Relations office wants to help Ralph again. This time they want to totally eliminate the blood debt and establish a reserve.

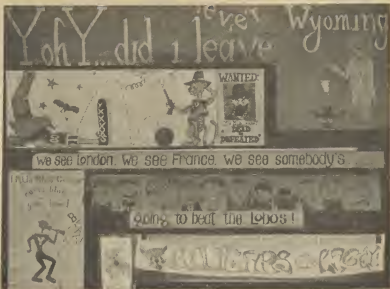

DONATION BOOTH

A booth is set up in the north end of the Reception Center of the Wilkinson Center to make appointments for the blood donations. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to sign up between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Those who donated last time and have waited the recommended period may donate again.

All blood types will be accepted. Blood cannot be given if you have been exposed to any tropical disease in the past year. If you are under 21, you need written parental permission.

If you have had a cold recently doctors advise that you wait two weeks before giving.

KIMBALL HALL'S GIANT PROPHECY BANNER

... proved to be an accurate prediction of Wyoming's fate at the hands of the Cougar cagers Saturday night. The Lobo part of the prognostication reportedly refers only to their game at Utah. Twenty-six clubs and residence halls competed in the contest, part of the first annual Pep Competition Extravaganza. Grand Sweepstakes winner was Wymount Terrace B. For other winners see story on page 6.

Shot Injures Student

"I served 21 months in Vietnam as a medic, but I had to come back to the states to get shot," said Theodore (Ted) James Johnson, 23, a junior at BYU.

Johnson accidentally shot himself last Friday afternoon in a friend's apartment as he attempted to remove his .22 cal. pistol from the holster he was wearing.

He was going to unload his pistol.

"The safety strap caught on the hammer and half-cocked my gun when I tried to take it out of the holster. I reached to unsnap the catch, but my finger must have touched the trigger. The next thing I knew I was lying on the floor."

The bullet clipped the knee cap at its entered his right leg just below the knee, travelling along the bone, coming out just above the ankle and embedding itself in his boot.

Hot Cougars Bomb Cowboys

By Gary Wood
Universe Sports Editor

Pity the team to play the BYU basketballers after they lose a home game.

After defense-minded New Mexico stunned the Cougars, 76-67, in a great second half effort Friday, Coach Stan Watts' crew stormed back to annihilate Wyoming, 101-77, on Saturday.

Earlier in the season the Y cagers took apart Santa Clara, 91-66, the night after the Broncos audaciously defeated the Cougars 80-75 in the Smith Fieldhouse.

The weekend split left the Mountain Cat squad with its collective back against the wall in the Western Athletic Conference race.

THIRD PLACE

The Cougars are now tied with Wyoming for third place with a 3-4 mark; tied for the league lead are Utah and New Mexico at 5-2. BYU, now 12-10 overall, hosts Utah Saturday in a 2 p.m. regionally telecast contest.

In the loss to the Lobos it was simply a case of the Cougars finally having a bad game—or more accurately, a bad half.

The white-clad Cat hoopers got off to a fast start, and led through much of the opening stanza on the strength of a 55 per cent shooting percentage.

However, the Wolfpack knotted

Tough Lobos Down Cats

the score 41-41 by halftime and used a tenacious defense and the shooting of 6-8 sophomore forward Greg Howard to pull away after the intermission.

Howard scored 12 straight points at the outset of the second half to put the game out of reach and end BYU's home court winning streak against WAC foes at 20.

The Lobo jumping-jack was the game's high point man with 25; Marty Lythgoe was high for BYU with 22.

The following night the Cougars played a complete game, handing the Cowboys their worst defeat since UCLA bombed them, 104-71, in the finals of the Los Angeles Classic last December.

The Pumas ran up a 46-31 lead

'Phil Odle Night' Slates Elder Marion D. Hanks

Phil Odle will be honored tonight at 7 p.m. in the Wilkinson Center ballroom.

Featured speaker at the special occasion will be Marion D. Hanks of the First Council of Seventy of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The BYU football star will receive presentations from the Downtown Coaches Club, the Marching Band and ASBYU President Paul Gilbert on behalf of the student body.

"We want everyone to attend who possibly can," urged Chairman Kent Swenson of the Young Men, co-sponsors of the event along with the Downtown Coaches.

"Phil has done a lot for BYU and we hope a lot of people will come to show how much we appreciate it," Swenson added.

The leading pass receiver in BYU and Western Athletic Conference history, Odle was a key factor in winning for the school its first football championship and first 9-2 season.

Phil Odle Night will be similar to the program honoring quarterback Virgil Carter last year.

The Church This Week

by Pierre Hathaway
Universe Religion Writer

Church members seem to have a fixation for early Mormon memorabilia. Recently while rummaging through a trash can in California Mr. Dale White retrieved a rare portrait of the Prophet Joseph Smith. Shortly thereafter, Buddy Youngren, a member of the Pasadena, Stake acquired the painting from Mr. White.

Recognizing the potential value of the painting, Mr. Youngren had the Southys Ltd. of London appraise the painting. The assessed value is in the neighborhood of $500.

120 YEARS OLD

The Assessors expressed an opinion dating the picture about 1840. Mr. Youngren notes that the diary of Joseph Smith states he sat for his portrait between 1839 and 1841.

The Portrait is in oil and is 24 by 30 inches. The front view in this picture is different from the side views common to most of the previous paintings of the Prophet.

When shown the picture Church officials in the Historians office concurred in saying it could be a portrait of Joseph Smith.

STAKE A WEEK

A stake a week seems to be the order of the day, as the 450th Stake was organized last week hot on the heels of the 449th which was organized the week before.

Number 450 is the San Jose South Stake in San Jose, Calif. The original San Jose Stake has been divided three times since its organization in 1932. Membership in the area in 1952 was 3,200. Presently 18,500 members occupy the same area.

President De Boyd Smith presides over the neophyte Stake with Kenneth Foulger and Reed A. Hall as counselors.

ALL CHURCH WRAPUP

Wrapping up the Church basketball season each year is the All Church Championship. March 11 is jump time for the 72 teams coming to Salt Lake for the tournament this year.

James Hodgson chairman of the Athletic Committee of the YMMIA indicated the games will be played in nine gyms throughout Salt Lake.

Alvin E. Dyer will host a special devotional for all players at 7:30 Sunday, March 10.

Thirty-two senior teams, 32 junior teams, and eight college Ward teams will vie in the contest. Last year's winner in the Senior Division was the Van Nuys, Calif. First Ward. The Junior Division winner was the Centerville Third Ward. The BYU 47th Ward took the college ward competition.

NEW SS ASSIGNMENTS

J. Vernon Sharp was recently appointed to the General Board of the Desert Sunday School Union.

Mr. Sharp has had previous service as a Mission President and in various high councils as well as being a member of the Priesthood Genealogy Committee.

GENEALOGY CONVENTION FORTHCOMING

The Genealogy Committee recently put Bob R. Zabriskie in charge of the world-wide convention of Genealogists to be held in Salt Lake Aug. 5-9, 1969.

Under the direction of Howard W. Hunter and Theodore M. Burton, Zabriskie will handle arrangements at the convention for 20,000 to 25,000 genealogists from around the World.

LIKE HITLER

Editor:
How quick many of us are to forget the lessons taught us through history.

A bare thirty years ago an interesting parallel to our present world situation was taking place. While sounding peace overtures Hitler forced his way into Austria. When he began looking at Czechoslovakia (sic), England and France, who were supposed to help defend Czechoslovakia (sic); literally gave large sections of that country to Hitler without even consulting with the Czechoslovakian government.

This they did, because they didn't want to be drawn into war. As a result Germany had about a year more in which to prepare for a war with England and France. This year of preparedness, on the part of Germany, made the fight much more difficult and lengthy (sic) when England and France eventually were drawn into war anyway.

The conditions in Asia which the Communists are bringing on have a familiar ring. Let us beware lest we be drawn into the same trap again.

POOR LOGIC

Editor:
I question the logic of the students who despise "liberals" who hack at their constitution, and yet, in the same breath, attack the United States Supreme Court for upholding that Constitution.

It is obvious that the prayer they attribute to the Justices was, in fact, composed by one of their "conservative" fellows, and I suspect both the degradation of prayer and the false accusation.

There is certainly much to be criticized in a country, and much good to be done; conservatism is a very necessary element of society. However, the type of destructive and malicious demonstration offered by W. Andrus McCullough and Jay R. McKelzie is much more appalling than these things they denounce.

I suggest that you gentlemen follow your own advice: Stand up for America. Instead of calling her people names and credit her leaders with your own blasphemy, honor the Author of the original prayer, and leaders of the nation who send your privilege to do so.

Heart Attack Claims Visitor

William Eugene Stratford, 72, from Tappanville, Wash., died Friday afternoon from an apparent heart attack according to Health Center Director Dr. Floyd C. Hofheins.

Mr. Stratford and his wife were visiting their grandson, a student at BYU, and his family.

While in the games area of the Wilkinson Center, Mr. Stratford became short of breath and collapsed. Security was notified and an ambulance took Mr. Stratford to the Health Center where he died.

Free Forum Set

Free forum begins again Tuesday at BYU.

"The Purpose and Function of BYU Security" will be discussed by Captain Sven Nielson of Security in the Varsity Theater.

A question and answer period will follow.

Captain Nielson graduated from the Los Angeles Police Academy and Investigators School. He also holds a B.S. degree in police science administration from Los Angeles State College. A graduate of Gorman Polygraph Examiner School, he is authorized to officially use a lie detector.

A former Army patrolman, Captain Nielson was employed by the Los Angeles Police Department for one year as a uniform patrolman and for two years as an investigator. He is president of the National Association of Colleges and University Rectors. He has been employed by BYU since 1961.

Captain Nielson is nearing completion of his master's degree in public administration at BYU. He is married and has four children. His various Church positions held in the past include one in ward bishopric.

Beware Of Shady Sales Tactics

From time to time it becomes necessary to warn students of certain sales programs and contracts that have a strong potential for misunderstanding and abuse. It is unfortunate, from the standpoint of sincere, reputable businessmen, that some salesmen resort to questionable sales approaches.

Recently a number of students have complained of the solicitations of certain magazine salesmen. The problem begins with a telephone call of the following format.

"Congratulations, your home has been selected to receive _____ Magazine and four others of your choice for the next 60 months. The magazines are free and you pay is a small postage and handling charge. Would you like me to have one of our representatives stop by and show you a list of our magazines?"

An hour or so later the representative arrives with the list in contract form. Normally he will urge that the lucky recipient sign the contract in order to take advantage of the offer. The small postage and handling charge of 45¢ a week is lumped together for budget purposes at $4.50 a month for 26 months but the total of $117.00 is not mentioned.

In a number of recent incidents, wives who wished to discuss the offer with their husbands were urged to sign the contract under the salesman's verbal promise to cancel it if the husband did not approve. A careful reading of the contract indicates the following:

● No verbal agreements are recognized.

● The contract is not subject to cancellation or change.

● In addition to these points the contract also states that "Nothing is free of our offer."

Students should be advised that most subscription rates cover only the costs of postage and handling. The offer is real that of normal subscriptions at full normal rates. Most publishers offer special student subscription rates substantially below the regular rates. Such terms are usually stated frankly and without pressure.

Remember, never sign a contract who terms are not fully stated in an understandable manner. Beware of salesmen who say that they can't call back or who are unwilling to allow time for you to consider a contract before signing. Married women should also be wary of salesmen who are unwilling or hesitant to discuss their offers with the man of the house.

As students we receive many outstanding legitimate offers which are worthy of consideration. By the exercise of common sense and caution we can take advantage of them without being taken advantage of.

STANDARD DRESS?
Editor:
I think Mister Willis made a ... point out in Friday's Universa ... —but one that offered little sup- ... port to his major complaint of ... dress standards being enforced. ... He did mention the inconsistency ... with which it is done.

I like to think anyone who en- ... ters my home would show respect ... for the standards that I, as head ... of the house, have set up.

Most smokers are polite enough ... to ask permission to smoke in ... someone else's home and don't ... feel offended if refused. COLOSSEUM DUCATS
Editor:
There once was a great Em- ... peror of Rome who decreed, ... "All citizens of Rome who have ... paid their taxes may attend the ... gladiator contests in the great ... Colosseum free of charge."

During the year when the home ... town gladiators were winning, ... people would overwhelm the free ... ticket window. To keep the ... crowds away, and the lines within ... bounds, the Emperor required ... that recommends be given out in ... the wee hours of the morning to ... those who would get up that ... early.

He also required that those ... with recommendations come very ... early to the contests to claim ... their seats; or else they would ... lose all claim to their seats, even ... though they had awakened long ... before the charlots had started ... rolling.

The Emperor found that during ... the winning seasons, people were ... willing to brave early morning ... hours, stand in several long lines, ... and spend hours waiting for a ... chance to get a free ticket to ... see the home town boys glori- ... ously win.

Then came the losing seasons ... when the home town boys didn't ... seem to be doing too well. All ... the free seats were not being used. The Emperor's Business ... Manager said, "Let's sell those ... tickets which go unused, and cut ... the free ticket allotment."

The Emperor, being a kind and ... wise old man, replied, "I set up ... a free ticket allotment to ben- ... efit my subjects: It is my wish ... that they should get their seats. ... Forget the early morning recom- ... mends and the pre-game requirements. Pass the tickets out in ... the early afternoon, and give the ... tax payers what is their due."

Let's take a lesson from his- ... tory, and start giving out bas- ... ketball tickets like football ... tickets; so that those of us who ... do not have the time to stand about ... and wait for hours can use the ... unused tickets.

BYU Conference Hosts High School Scholars

Nine hours of conferences and entertainment had one theme for 294 high school scholars on campus Saturday: "Enroll at BYU."

Invited by the Admissions Advisers' Program, the assembled high school seniors had all achieved ACT test scores of 26 (90th percentile) or above.

COMMENDED

In the opening session of the conferences, they were commended for their work by ASBYU President Paul Gilbert and the Executive Council.

Questioning of the scholars during the conference revealed that one of the program's highlights was a question period in which a panel of five honors students responded frankly to such questions as:

"Do BYU students lend sheltered lives?"

"What is it like with the returned missionaries on campus?"

GREAT UNIVERSITY

Keynote address beginning the conference was by Dr. Truman G. Madsen, professor of philosophy. He quoted John A. Widsoe in saying, "BYU must become earth's greatest University."

Physical sciences, art, the humanities, and social sciences at BYU were all explored in colloquiums.

Current research programs, strengths in undergraduate curricula and other topics were probed by Dr. Duane Dudley, associate professor of physics, Dr. Herbert H. Frost, associate professor of zoology, Dr. Douglas F. Tobler of the history department, and Dr. Clint on L. Oaks, professor of business management.

Top Banner Award Goes To Wymount

Winners of the banner contest were announced Saturday night by Terrell Hunt, Athletic Office Pep Assistant, at the Wyoming basketball game.

Twenty-six clubs and residence halls competed in the contest which brought to a close the annual Pep Competition Extravaganza.

Wymount Terrace 7B won the Grand Sweepstakes award, Fugal Hall had the most humorous, Bowen Hall the most creative, Lucy Mack Smith Hall the most artistic and Kimball Hall the most awesome.

Entries included everything from gigantic banners to psychedelic window paintings and to displays of Cosmo in a ticket booth.

Kimball Hall's gigantic "Y oh Y did I leave Wyoming?" proved to be prophetic as well as the most awesome. Fugal Hall's slogan, "I see London, I see France, I see someone's going to beat the Lobos" was not prophetic unless it was referring to Utah's victory over New Mexico Saturday.

Judges in the contest were LaVar Rockwood, Carl Jones, Severin Johnson and Glen Willardson.

all five starters scored in double figures.

It was sweet vengeance for BYU against the team that tied the Cougars for the WAC championship last season and then defeated them in a playoff game in Salt Lake City for the right to enter the NCAA playoffs.

Gymnasts Win One, Lose One

Coach Erace Morganegg and the BYU gymnastics team returned from California last night with victories over Cal Poly and Cal State and a loss to the University of California at Berkeley.

Friday the gymnasts came up with their lowest score of the year, losing to Cal at Berkeley by 187.9 to 189.15. The Berkeley team is tenth in the nation, however.

Second places in the Berkeley meet were recorded by Bryce Martin in free exercise, Dennis Ramsey in the sidehorse, Craig Chamberlain in the rings and Austin Thatcher in the longhorse.

In a tri-school meet Saturday, the Y gymnasts prevailed with a 176.55 score against Cal Poly's 142.35 and Cal State's 174.65.

First places in Saturday's meet were won by Ramsey in the sidehorse, Chamberlain in the rings and Mike Gordon in the high bar. Ramsey's performance in the side-horse beat the defending national champion in that event by .15 point.

Coach Morganegg commented following the meet Saturday were very well disciplined, form and execution in the meet.

Indubitably. The effect is monumentally hypnotic.

8. Really?

Fancy phraseology produces a subconscious result, especially during the verbal equinox.

4. Cosh.

As a modus operandi in establishing a continuous program of rewarding social contacts, I find verbiage highly efficacious.

Grapplers Pin Four Teams On Road

By Jack Bailey
Utah Sports Editor
 Fred Davis should write how to succeed in Wrestling. Truly, the weekend, the BYU team pushed their season record to 14-4 by slaying Scott, Wyoming, Utah State, and Utah. In the three matches, the rival Western Athletic co-ops saw five Cougars win. Middle-weights Jeff Butcher (137), Russ McAdams (145), Howard Hall (152), Bill Osborn (169) and Joe Lyman (187) crushed all opposing onslaughts.

CLEAN SWEEP
 By taking Wyoming 20-12, the Cats made a clean sweep over WAC teams during the year. BYU now owns two season victories over Utah and ASU by grabbing road wins Saturday by identical 18-13 scores.

Against Utah and Arizona State, the matches weren't as close as the score indicates. In both encounters, the Cougars went into the last two weight divisions with a lopsided 18-3 edge. Because of an injury to Merrill Cook, BYU elected to forfeit at 177-lbs. And the huskier heavyweights of State and Utah fought past Cat Bob Christensen in picking up some slack in the score.

The Cougars took all four matches by healthy margins. Hiram Scott fell 27-10 as BYU yielded only a forfeit and a five-point pin in the 130-lb. division.

Cougars Osborn, Lyman and heavy-weight Christensen all weighed impressive pins in piling up the point total.

Against Wyoming Friday night, 123-lb newcomer Jim Pederson slid past Paul Soriano 9-8 to get the Cougar club ticking Pederson edged Wayne Feilburg during squad tryouts to qualify for the midwest jaunt.

After seeing Pederson go 2-2 on the trip, Coach Davis discovered he had three 123-lb. candidates to pick from next year. Injured WAC champ Chuck Henry will be back as a senior and Feilburg will return for his junior year along with Pederson.

At 130-lbs. Mike McAdams was pinned by Cowpoke Doyle Davies. Jeff Butcher (137) crushed Dan Silbaugh 9-3 to give the lead back to the Cougars 6-5 after three bouts.

Saturday's matches against Utah and ASU saw the Cats drop the opening 123-lb. match and the ending heavy-weight class in both bouts but win everything in between except for the 177-lb. forfeit.

gro Athlete Will Run Olympics—Maybe—

YORK, Feb. 18—Sprint athlete Smith of San Jose, Calif., one of the most outspoken athletes supporting a Negro boycott of the Olympic games, has admitted will participate if a major outstanding Negro prospects do.

In his views in an article current issue of SPORTS, Smith says: "I believe a agreement, or something close to total agreement, is necessary for success in this. If my brothers and the majority of the outstanding Negro Olympic prospects can not concur in this resolution and are not prepared to accept such action, then I will go on to fulfill my ambition to become an Olympian."

Among the abuses Smith would like to see corrected before he decides whether or not to try out for the U.S. Olympic team, are the opening of the all-white membership roles of the New York Athletic Club to Negroes, the barring of Southern Rhodesia and South Africa from Olympic competition, the appointing of an additional Negro coach to the Olympic coaching staff and the appointing of at least one Negro to the United States Olympic Committee.

Bounce Opponents

away victories were this weekend by BYU's basketball team. The team downed Rangely Junior, 99-49, Friday, and Ricks College, 120-72, Saturday.

Rangely contest the Spartans an opening 3-0 lead, 11 in a matter of seconds they regained it. At half Kittens held a 46-37 edge, the second half they outscored Rangely team 53-32.

Morton, of the Spartans has high point man of the 22 points. Kittens John and Chris Dowling tied for place honors with 19 each, freshmen racked up the score they have reached down in their battle with Ricks.

Carl LeSueur, with 19 was top scorer of the game and other cats had points the teens.

freshmen's next clash will be at the University of Utah Saturday at 4:00 p.m.,

Universe News Around The World

KENNEDY

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Contrary to what President John F. Kennedy's personal secretary wrote in a new book, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy said Sunday his brother had no intention of dumping Lyndon Johnson from the 1964 Democratic ticket.

"It was always clear that Lyndon Johnson would be the Vice Presidential candidate," the Senator said.

His statement continued a book by Evelyn Lincoln, the late president's personal secretary, in which she wrote that four days before his assassination, President Kennedy told her that his running mate in 1964 "will not be Lyndon."

PLANE HIJACKED

MARATHON, FLA. (UPI)—A "Born bitter" professor's son fleeing personal problems apparently hired a private plane Saturday, then hijacked it in flight and ordered the pilot at gunpoint to take him to Cuba.

Authorities tentatively identified the hijacker as 31-year-old Thomas Boynton of Kalamazoo, Mich., and said he was distressed over the recent loss of his job and a threatened divorce by his wife, a Negro Go-Go dancer.

HUE REFUGEES

HUE, SOUTH VIETNAM (UPI)—U.S. Officials said Sunday the battle of Hue has created 67,000 war refugees and that 50,000 of them were wandering aimlessly through the streets of the ravaged city.

The population of Hue was about 130,000 before the communists invaded on Jan. 31.

"They are just pre-occupied about where they can get their next meal, what happened to their families, and what happened to their homes," Robert Kelly, Senior U.S. Adviser in Thua Thien Province, said of the refugees.

"The government has just collapsed."

Hue is the capital of Thua Thien Province.

Kelly said about 20,000 of the refugees were on the south side of the Perfume river, the area cleared last week by U.S. Marines. About 30,000 were on the north side of the river where fighting was still raging Sunday inside the walls of the citadel.

PUEBLO

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States warned North Korea Sunday against punishing crewmen of the captured USS Pueblo following hints that they could be executed.

In an unusual Sunday statement, the State Department said any punishment of the American seamen would be considered a "deliberate aggravation" of a serious situation. Department sources said privately it would undoubtedly evoke strong reaction by the United States.

The statement apparently was prompted by an alleged "apology" made by the Pueblo crew and broadcast by North Korea Friday. It referred to the crew's alleged expectation of "severe punishment" and hinted that this might include the death penalty.

Three Released Pilots Greet Families

For 10-year-old Mike Overly, happiness was having his father home to celebrate his birthday.

Mike's father is Air Force Lt. Col. Norris M. Overly, 39, one of three American pilots released Friday by North Vietnam. The officer was reunited with his wife, Ruth, daughter, Debbie, 11, and Mike on the cold, wind-swept runway of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio, early Sunday.

"Honey, honey, honey! Oh thank God!" Mrs. Overly shouted as she hugged her pale husband.

"Daddy," sobbed Debbie.

Mike said nothing. He just held on to his father with strength.

Overly was released after another Air Force officer, Jon D. Black, 30, and N. (J.G.) David P. Matheny, 27, had a joyful reunion with Carol, and their three sons at Air Force Base near San Jo, Tex.
